VOLUNTARY ANNOUNCEMENT

The board (the “Board”) of directors (the “Directors”) of Solomon Worldwide Holdings Limited (“the Company”, together with its subsidiaries, the “Group”) announces as follow.

Recently, certain people alleged to be triad members (the “Group of People”) made threats and caused nuisance to the staffs as well as their family members of Solomon Financial Press Limited (a subsidiary indirectly owned by the Company (the “Subsidiary”). Even worse, the Group of People who also claimed to be either the staffs or authorized persons of the Subsidiary, made malicious phone calls to the customers and business partners of the Subsidiary with the purposes of damaging the reputation of the Subsidiary and the Group and other ulterior motives.

The Board hereby clarifies that such nuisance calls have never been made by any existing staffs of the Subsidiary. Any customers and/or business partners of the Subsidiary who receive suspicious phone calls from people who claims to be staffs or authorized persons of the Subsidiary in the future, shall contact the relevant staffs of the Subsidiary for verification as soon as possible.

The Group has handed over the above case to the Hong Kong Police for their handling. The Group will not only take all actions to safeguard the reputation of the Subsidiary and the Group, but also take further legal actions against the Group of People and other involving parties in order to restore the reputation of the Subsidiary and the Group, and recover all other losses suffered therefrom, as and when appropriate.

 For identification purposes only*

The Board would also like to express its sincere apologies for any inconvenience caused to those affected customers, business partners and other parties of the Subsidiary by the above.

By Order of the Board
Solomon Worldwide Holdings Limited
